Unveiling the agenda for the Chemspec Europe 2024's conferences

The 37th edition of Chemspec Europe 2024, the International Exhibition for Fine and Speciality Chemicals, is to be held from 19th to 20th June in Hall 3 at the Messe Düsseldorf exhibition centre in Germany. Chemspec Europe serves as an essential networking platform, connecting buyers, traders, and agents seeking advanced products and novel solutions from across the globe. With over 380 exhibitors from 24 countries showcased on 7,650 square metres of floorspace, the upcoming edition once more promises to be an unmissable event for the fine and speciality chemical industry.

Conference Programme Announcement

Alongside the main exhibition, Chemspec Europe also offers a high-level conference programme, designed to deliver valuable insights into recent industry developments and ongoing research initiatives.

Highlights of the conference programme include Julien Daubignard, Ing., PhD of Institut Carnot IPGG Microfluidique speaking on 'Alternative energy sources in flow chemistry and development of automatized microfluidic systems for high-throughput synthesis of APIs' and the presentation on 'How to speed up API development using flow chemistry' from Dr. Guillaume Gauron of Corning SAS, both of which will take place in the Royal Society of Chemistry Lecture Theatre.

In the Regulatory Services Lecture Theatre, you can learn more about 'Mastering Challenges in SCIP: Best Practices' with Yana Trubitsyna of REGARTIS s.r.o. Another highlight of the programme is the seminar about 'Korea REACH and How to Prepare for the 2024 deadline' from Frederik Johanson of REACHlaw Ltd.

In the Agrochemical Lecture Theatre, discover 'R&D Trends in Agrochemicals' with Lawrence Middler of AgbioInvestor. The Innovative Startups Presentations will also take place in the theatre on the first day of the show, with the keynote speech 'Sustainability reporting in the chemical sector' being given by Tobias Kirchhoff of BCNP Consultants GmbH.

Dorothee Arns, Director General of the European Association of Chemical Distributors – FECC will speak on 'Chemical Value Chains - Today and Tomorrow' in the Pharma Lecture Theatre, where Arvind Singh of SK Pharmteco will also explore 'How AI can transform the pharmaceutical supply chain'.

The full conference programme is now live and available at www.chemspeceurope.com/en-gb/conferences.html

Matchmaking Programme

Chemspec Europe offers a Matchmaking Programme to amplify networking opportunities for visitors. This programme is beneficial to all participating in the event, as it aims to unite visitors and exhibitors with shared buyer and seller interests. It also facilitates the planning of meetings prior to the event.

Enhanced ticket options for upgraded networking opportunities with fellow visitors through the Matchmaking Programme are available. These include access to an on-site Matchmaking Lounge, available exclusively to Visitor PLUS ticket holders to participate in prearranged meetings.

Key Visitor Details

Visitor registration is currently available on the official website. Tickets are priced at €50 for advance purchases made before 5th June, at which point the price will rise to €85. On-site purchases will cost €100. The Visitor PLUS ticket, offering enhanced access to the Matchmaking Programme and the Matchmaking Lounge, is available for €250, subject to availability.
